[XXVd YEAR.] THE [No. 1263.] 187

MARYLAND GAZETTE.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 23, 1769.

LEGHORN, July 27.

LETTERS from Corfica adviſe, that a Canon of Evagno, in the Pieve of Vico, had attacked, with 200 Men, 2 Piquets belonging to the French, and killed 59 Men; that the Government, notwithſtanding this Inſult, in order to maintain the Tranquility of the Iſland, had offered to pardon that Eccleſiaſtic, if he would return to his Obedience, which he refuſed.

KALISCH, Aug. 4. The Tartars, already weary of the War, have ſeparated from the Turkiſh Army, in order to return to their own Country.

WARSAW, Aug. 17. To free the Town of Choczim, the Grand Viſir detached from his Army Two Corps, one of Forty, the other Thirty Thouſand Men.—The firſt of theſe Two Corps did not think proper to wait the Arrival of the Ruſſians, who were commanded by the Generals Stoffeln, Bruce, and Proſorowſki; the other was repulſed, a firſt Time on the 29th of July, and a ſecond Time on the 1ſt of this Month. At the ſame Time 2000 Spahis (Turkiſh Horſe) attempted a Sally, but met with ſuch Reſiſtance from 15 Squadrons of Ruſſian Cuiraſſiers, that they were forced to re-enter the Town. At the Departure of the Poſt, a Report prevailed, that Choczim had opened its Grates to the Ruſſians, and that Potocki, with a Number of Confederates, had ſurrendered themſelves Priſoners of War.

BRESCIA, Aug. 20. A moſt dreadful Accident happened here the Day before Yeſterday. The Lightening fell upon a Tower, in which were ſeveral Thouſand Pounds Weight of Gunpowder, and blew it up into the Air with a horrible Exploſion. Eight Palaces, and 97 other Houſes, have been entirely deſtroyed by it, and more than 1800 Perſons buried in the Ruins. About 300 have been dug out alive, but all more or leſs hurt. The reſt were found cruſhed to Pieces. We cannot, as yet, form any juſt Eſtimate of the Loſs occaſioned by this melancholy Accident; but, according to Appearance, it cannot be leſs than 300,000 Venetian Ducats.

PARIS, Aug. 21. It is pretended, that the Engliſh have offered to reſtore Canada, if the King of France will give up their Poſſeſſions in India, and prohibit all Commerce to their Subjects in thoſe Parts.

LONDON,

Aug. 24. George Wood, the Perſon mentioned in Yeſterday's Paper as charged with Murder and Piracy on board the Black Prince, arrived at London from New-York, in the Ship Dutcheſs of Gordon, with Martin Cow, William Bolton, and James Appleton, 3 of his barbarous Companions; and as they are all well known upon the River and 20 l. Reward is offered for each, it is hoped they will ſoon be taken, that their horrid Offence may be puniſhed as it deſerves.

It having been repreſented to the King, that about Eight Months ago the Ship Black Prince, William Hawkins, Maſter, belonging to Mr. John Fowler and others, Merchants in Briſtol, bound to Old Calabar on the Coaſt of Africa, having on board about 44 Perſons, Boys included; that about Two Months after they left Briſtol, being within a Week's ſail from the Coaſt, about 30 of the Crew (moſt of whom are deſcribed in the Liſt) mutinied, and bound the Captain and Chief Mate, and put them, together with the Second and Third Mates, the Boatſwain, Cooper, One Foremaſt Man, and the Cabbin Boy, and ſome Neceſſaries and Proviſions, into the Ship's Boat, and ſent them off; after which they changed the Name of the Black Prince to that of the Liberty, and painted her Head black; then ſailed for the Brazils, and coming to Siara, they ſold Part of her Cargo; at which Place, while Part of the Crew were aſhore, thoſe on board cut the Cable, and after firing ſeveral Shot into the Town, gave Chaſe to a Schooner, which however eſcaped from them; that ſoon after this, they tried the Cook, Allen M'Coy, by a pretended Court Martial, condemned and hanged him; and afterwards put into Crab Iſland, where ſeeing a Sail to Leeward, they chaſed her, but the People quitting their Veſſel, and taking to their Boats, the Crew of the Black Prince did not board her, but ſailed for the Weſt-India Iſlands, and ran aſhore at Petit Trou, on the Iſland of Hiſpaniola, where the Spaniards took Care of them, and helped in unloading the Ship; and all the Cargo, except the Iron, was taken out, and put under the Orders of the Governor.

We are informed a Petition will be moved for by the Freeholders of the County of Lincoln at the Races, which begin the 4th of September.

Aug. 25. An Evening Paper of laſt Night ſays, "It is the received Opinion of ſome political Connoiſſeurs, that on Saturday laſt the finiſhing Hand was put to a Change in the Adminiſtration.

We hear, in Caſe the Committee of the Bill of Rights, at the next Meeting at the London Tavern, ſhould expel S—— V——, Eſq; as not being longer worthy to continue a Member of that Honourable Society, that he intends to move the Court of King's-Bench the Firſt Day of next Term, for a Mandamus againſt them, to ſhew by what Authority they exert their Right of expelling him.

By Advices lately received from various Correſpondents in different Parts of Europe, we are informed, that the Harveſt in Norway, Denmark, Sweden, Poland, Pruſſia, and other Northern Parts of Europe, turn out very bad; but that there is the greateſt Plenty of Corn in Italy, Sicily, and other Parts of the Mediterranean, ever known.

Aug. 26. On Thurſday laſt Sir John Lindſay received his Commiſſion of Commander in Chief of the Squadron deſtined for India; and Yeſterday he kiſſed his Majeſty's Hand, on Occaſion of the above Promotion.

It is ſaid, with great Appearance of Probability, that a Change in the Miniſtry will ſpeedily take Place; that Lord C——m will again ſuperintend the National Affairs; and, what is ſtill more ſingular, will be united with ſome certain great Men, with whom it has been repeatedly aſſerted, he declared he never would have any Connexion.

A Nobleman, who had lately a very unpopular Character, we are aſſured is every Day regaining the Place he once held in the Opinion of the Public, as it is well known he has uſed all his Influence with a certain Great Perſonage in Behalf of a Patriotic Gentleman, whoſe Puniſhment is generally thought to be much more ſevere than his Offences have deſerved.

Aug. 29. General Paoli's Baggage, which has been for ſome Time expected, arrived laſt Week in the River; it came over in the Ship that brought Lord Exeter from Leghorn.

We are informed, that ſince the Arrival of an unpopular Nobleman from abroad, he has been repeatedly applied to, not only by ſeveral now in Power, but by others in the Oppoſition, on the preſent State of Affairs, and that he has abſolutely declared his fixed Determination not to interfere, either directly or indirectly, in Matters relative to Government.

Aug. 31. This Day, preciſely at Twelve o'Clock, the Court of Proprietors of the Eaſt-India Stock met. Sir George Colebrooke opened the Buſineſs by informing the Court, that laſt Night the Directors had received a Meſſage from Mr. Wood, Secretary to Lord Weymouth, informing them, that Sir John Lindſay's Commiſſion, in regard to the ſole Command of his Majeſty's Ships in the Gulph of Perſia, has been ſigned and ſealed, with this further Amendment, "that in caſe of Sir John's Death, the next Officer in Command ſhould ſucceed to his Department."

We have the Pleaſure to aſſure the Public, that there will moſt certainly be a Petition from the large and opulent County of York; notwithſtanding all that has been ſaid and attempted to the Contrary.

We hear that the Livery of London intend, on Michaelmas Day, to petition his Majeſty for the Diſſolution of the preſent Parliament.

Five Hundred Guineas were laid Yeſterday to Four Hundred, that the Parliament will be diſſolved before Chriſtmas.

Yeſterday the Earl of Egmont attended the Levee at St. James's, and had a Conference with his Majeſty, from whence it is conjectured, that his Lordſhip will ſoon be appointed to ſome Poſt in the Adminiſtration.

A Correſpondent ſays, the prodigious In[illegible]e of the French Navy is entirely alarming, and ſhould inſtigate the Great to lay aſide Contentions and Party Squabbles, and unite in taking Care of the moſt eſſential Intereſts and Security of the Nation, which Demand a powerful Navy ever well kept up, and ready to defeat the Attempts of our artful and natural Enemy.

BOSTON, November 6.

A Gentleman ſhewed us laſt Week a Pair of Silk Stockings that were manufactured here and wove by Mr. Etter, of German-Town: They appeared to be fine and very ſtrong: Several other Pairs we hear are weaving of Silk made here.

By Letters from Gardineriton, alias Cobbiſconte, on Kennebeck River, dated the 18th Ult. we learn, that on Tueſday the 17th, 4 Minutes before 12 o'Clock they had there a ſmart Shock of an Earthquake, which laſted a Minute: It was inſtantly followed with a violent Hurricane of Wind from the N. W. and by W. which continued all that Day: The next Day exactly at the ſame Hour and Minute, viz. 4 Minutes before 12 o'Clock there was another Shock harder than that on the preceding Day; it threw the Pewter off the Shelves, and the Ground appeared to move in Waves, and ſeem'd to come from N. W.

NEWPORT, November 6.

Laſt Monday in the Afternoon the Merchants and others, of this Town, met at the Court-Houſe, and entered into a very ſpirited and conſtitutional, Agreement of Non-Importation, to continue from that Day, 'til the late Act impoſing Duties on Paper, Glaſs, &c. ſhall be repealed. One Copy of this Agreement is ſigned by 47 of the principal Merchants and Traders in this Town, and we ſuppoſe other Copies have met with ſimilar Succeſs.

PHILADELPHIA,

Nov. 9. Captain Peele, from Liſbon, informs, that on the 25th of September, in Lat. 36, 34, Long. 15, 36, he fell in with Three Sallee Men of War, of 32 Guns each, who ordered him to hoiſt out his Boat, and come on board them, which he did, and after producing his Mediterranean Paſs, they detained him Four Hours, and then ordered him to proceed on his Voyage. The next Morning he ſaw a Sail to Windward, which immediately bore down for him, and came up with him about Noon, when they fired a Gun, hoiſted a red Flag, and ordered him on board; that on his ſhewing his Paſs, the Captain ordered him under a Guard of 18 Men, while they went on board his Brig, plundered his Cabbin of his Stores and Neceſſaries; took away his Books and Inſtruments, Shirts, Wearing Apparel, and ſeveral Things of Value, ſtruck his Mate ſeveral Times, and uſed all his People very ill, threatening to ſtab them if they did not open their Cheſts; that they might take what they pleaſed; that one of their Slaves told him, while he was on board, the Ship belonged to the Emperor of Morocco; that they had lately ſailed from Novo Sallee on a Cruize, had taken ſeveral Spaniſh Ships, and plundered a great many others. They detained him 'til Evening, and then ordered him on board his own Veſſel.

Captain Crawford, from Londonderry, on the 30th ult. in Long. 58, ſpoke a Brig from Liſbon for Boſton 7 Weeks out.

By Captain May, from Liſbon, we are informed, that a Fleet of 30 Sail of Ruſſian Men of War, of the Line, joined by 10 Sail of Daniſh Men of War, were going from the Baltic up the Mediterranean, againſt the Algerines, who had declared War againſt the Danes. He further informs, that the above Account was brought to Liſbon by the Lieutenant of a Daniſh Man of War, and that they were all in the Sound on the 10th of Auguſt. On the 26th of September, Two Days after he left Liſbon, he fell in with 5 or 6 Sail of Algerines, One of them a Two Deck Ship, who fired ſeveral Shot and brought him too; after detaining him for ſome Time, Two Veſſels hove in Sight, which they took to be Engliſh Frigates, when they ſuffered him to proceed on his Voyage, having firſt taken away ſome of his Compaſſes, and Inſtruments. At the Time he left them he ſaw Two Xebecks bring a Snow too, but does not know who ſhe was. On the 24th of laſt Month, in Lat. 25, 25, Long. 62, 55, he ſaw a long Veſſel, which he took to be a Ship, under Jury Main and Mizen-Maſts, ſtanding to the S. E. but being to Windward, he could not ſpeak her; and on the 2d Inſtant, in Lat. 38, 5, Long. 72, he ſpoke a Schooner from St. Euſtatia for Boſton, all well.

From Cork we learn, that the Charming Polly Capt. Henderſon, who ſailed from this Port, with a deſpiſed Load of Malt, arrived there on the 29th of Auguſt, where ſhe was at firſt refuſed Entrance by the Colector, he ſuppoſing the ſaid Captain had run away with the Veſſel and Cargo, 'til the Captain produced a News-Paper containing the Tranſactions of the united Inhabitants of this City relative to the ſaid Malt; which Tranſactions have ſince been publiſhed there, and greatly approved of.

Laſt Week ſailed the Brig Friends Goodwill, Capt. Spicer, for Hull, who carries back with him a large Quantity of Goods imported in ſaid Brig, contrary to the Agreement of the Merchants and Traders of this City.

This Day ſails for London the Ship Pennſylvania Packet, Capt. Falconer, with whom go Paſſengers, Mrs. Rachel Wilſon, a public Friend, and Mr. Abel James, of this City, Merchant. Capt. Falconer carries with him a Quantity of Goods imported contrary to Agreement.

Nov. 13. On the 4th Inſt. his Honour the Governor was pleaſed to appoint Andrew Allen, Eſq; to the Office of Attorney-General of this Province, in the Room of Benjamin Chew, Eſq; who reſigned.

Extract of a Letter from Liſbon, dated Sept. 25, 1769.

"Having juſt now, on Change, learnt that this Court and the Emperor of Morocco have concluded Peace for a Year, we ſend this, after Capt. Fortin, to inform you thereof; fearing, as Barbary abounds in Wheat, Supplies from thence will reduce our Market to a low Ebb; which Occaſions our countermanding your intereſting us in Veſſels Cargoes 'til further Advice——Requeſting your communicating this unwelcome News to our Friends."

Nov. 16. We learn from Ferrol, that about the 16th of September, Accounts were received there, in the Spaniſh Magazine, and by Letters from England, that Mr. Pitt was again in Place, and with the King hourly; that it was ſaid Orders were come down from Madrid, for all the Men of War to be hauled out of the Mole, into the Stream; which cauſed various Conjectures there; that Orders were alſo received, for the Captains and Officers of each Ship, and 40 Men, to be on board, as they gave out, the Men of War would have more Air in the Stream than in the Mole; that they were in great Expectation of a War, as it was ſaid our Ambaſſador at Madrid had found out their ſecret Plan or Scheme, and was gone home to England; and that the Spaniſh Miniſter was put under Confinement, for letting him into the Secret; that it was publicly talked of there, that the Spaniſh Fleets at Cadiz and Ferrol, were to be joined by a large French Fleet, in order to attack Ireland at the firſt breaking out of the War; and that the Spaniards rejoice at every Advantage the Turks gain over the Ruſſians.

Saturday laſt the Brig Wolfe, Captain Potts, belonging to London (late commanded by Capt. Robinſon, who died on the Paſſage, about 4 Weeks after they ſailed) arrived here in 64 Days from Tenneriffe. On the 19th ult. in Lat. 28: 33, Long. 62: 30, Capt. Potts ſpoke a Schooner from Virginia, for Antigua, 5 Days out; 15th in Lat. 30: 14, Long. 63, ſpoke a Ship, late commanded by Capt. Hubbard, bound to London, from York River, in Virginia, that had loſt her Main and Mizen-masts about the latter End of Sept. in a violent Gale of Wind; and afterwards, in lying too in the same Gale, a Sea struck the Vessel, and washed the Master, Mate and 7 Hands, overboard, who were all drowned; also carried away the Boats, Quarter-Rails, Stanchions, and every Thing off the Deck; she had 5 Hands and a Passenger on board, and was then bearing away for Antigua; on the 18th in Lat. 32 : 12, Long. 68 : 30, spoke a Schooner, from Virginia, for Jamaica, 5 Days out; and on the 30th, in Lat. 37 : 22, about 125 Leagues to the Eastward of Cape Henry, he spoke the Ship Swan, from Maryland, for London, 5 Days out, all well.

Captain Badger, from Maryland, informs, that he saw a Ship ashore on Cape Henry; that the Master of a Fishing Boat acquainted him, she was from London, and had Convicts on board, who had attempted to run away with the Ship, which obliged the Captain and Crew to fire on them, when Two of the Convicts were killed.

WILLIAMSBURG, November 9.

TO THE PRINTER.

SIR,

THE following Paragraph in a Letter from an American, and a true Friend of Liberty, now in London, to his Friend in Virginia, who has also a real Regard for Liberty, ought to be made public, as it will give the Virginians an Opportunity of being grateful to so worthy a Governor, as I am sure they always wish to be.

London, July 19, 1769.

"Lord BOTETOURT, to his honour, has wrote "much in your Favour. Since the Advices from Vir- "ginia and Boston, it is generally believed the Ame- "rican Revenue Acts will be repealed, though some "weighty People are against it. Most here think the "Americans are in the Right."

The humble ADDRESS of the COUNCIL.

MY LORD,

WE his Majesty's dutiful Subjects, the Council of Virginia, now met in General Assembly, return your Excellency our sincerest Thanks for your kind Speech at the Opening of this Session, and for the Opportunity you have afforded us of dispatching the public Business of this Dominion. Your Excellency may be assured that the several Matters you have so earnestly recommended to the Legislature at this Time, will be attended to, and considered by the Council, with all the Temper and Moderation which the Importance of them requires; and, that we shall give a cheerful and ready Compliance with all such Measures as may best promote the Honour of the Crown, and the Happiness of his Majesty's Subjects of Virginia. The Information your Excellency has been pleased to give us, of the Intention of his Majesty's Ministers to propose in the next Session of Parliament to take off the Duty upon Paper, Glass, and Colours, is extremely agreeable to us; as a Repeal of the Revenue-Acts will be the most effectual Method to heal the Differences that have unhappily subsisted between Great-Britain and her Colonies, and to restore that Harmony and mutual Confidence which are so necessary for the Welfare and Prosperity of both. We acknowledge, with particular Satisfaction, that our most sanguine Expectation, upon your Excellency's Arrival in the Colony, have been fully answered, by the Experience we have already had of your prudent, wise, and equitable Administration; and we look upon it as a sure Presage of Happiness to this Country.

To which his EXCELLENCY was pleased to return the following ANSWER:

Gentlemen of the Council,

I ACCEPT with the utmost Thankfulness your very affectionate Address, and am proud to acknowledge that I stand indebted to your able and friendly Counsel for that Degree of Credit with which I have been honoured by this respectable Dominion.

The humble ADDRESS of the HOUSE of BURGESSES.

MY LORD,

WE his Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Burgesses of Virginia, now met in General Assembly, beg Leave to return your Excellency our sincere and unfeigned Thanks for your very kind and affectionate Speech at the Opening of this Session.

It gives us great Pleasure, that we have again the Honour of Meeting your Lordship in General Assembly, as it affords us an Opportunity of renewing to your Excellency, the strongest Assurances of our uninterrupted and most inviolable Attachment to the Sacred Person and Government of our Royal Sovereign, and, at the same Time, of discharging the important Duties we owe to our Constituents.

We should think ourselves extremely deficient in Duty and Affection to the best of Kings, were we not deeply impressed with the warmest Sentiments of Gratitude by his Majesty's most gracious Purpose of recommending to his Parliament a Repeal of the Act imposing Duties upon Glass, Paper, and Colours; especially, as we cannot doubt but that the same Wisdom and Goodness, which have already induced his Majesty favourably to regard the humble Entreaties of his faithful Subjects in America, will still farther incline the Royal Breast to an Exertion of his Majesty's gracious and benign Influence, towards perfecting the Happiness of all his People.

It adds greatly, my Lord, to our Satisfaction and Comfort, to learn from your Excellency, that his Majesty's present Administration have at no Time entertained a Design to propose to Parliament the laying any farther Taxes upon America, for the Purpose of raising a Revenue: and we will not suffer our present Hopes, arising from the pleasing Prospect your Lordship hath so kindly opened and displayed to us, to be dashed by the bitter Reflection, that any future Administration will entertain a Wish to depart from that Plan, which affords the surest and most permanent Foundation of public Tranquility and Happiness. No, my Lord, we are sure our most gracious Sovereign, under whatever Changes may happen in his confidential Servants, will remain immutable in the Ways of Truth and Justice, and that he is incapable of deceiving his faithful Subjects; and we esteem your Lordship's Information not only as warranted, but even sanctified by the Royal Word.

Your Lordship's great Regard and Attention to the Welfare and true Interests of this Colony, had before endeared you to us all; but your generous and noble Declarations, upon this Occasion, demand our warmest and most grateful Acknowledgments.

We will, my Lord, immediately take under our most serious Consideration the important Business, upon which we are now assembled, especially that Part of it, you have been pleased particularly to recommend; we will proceed with that Temper and Moderation, which is necessary to give Weight and Dignity to our Deliberations; and we do assure your Lordship, that we shall think ourselves supremely happy, if, in conducting the arduous and momentous Affairs of this great Country, we should, in the End, receive the Approbation of a Ruler, we so very cordially honour and esteem.

To which his EXCELLENCY was pleased to return the following ANSWER:

Mr. Speaker, and Gentlemen of the House of Burgesses,

YOUR kind and affectionate Address brightens my Prospect, and fills me with the delightful Expectation of completely answering the Purposes of my Royal Master. May the Almighty secure to me that desirable Object, by directing your Counsels for the Advantage and Prosperity of all his Majesty's extensive Dominions, and may you continue a loyal, free and happy People, till Time shall be no more.

ANNAPOLIS, November 23.

The SPEECH of his EXCELLENCY ROBERT EDEN, Esq; Governor and Commander in Chief in and over the Province of Maryland, on Friday the 17th of November, 1769.

Gentlemen of the Upper and Lower Houses of Assembly,

FROM my Desire of accommodating the Public Business to your private Affairs, I have delayed calling you together; nor should I, did not the Exigencies of Government make it necessary, now meet you, merely to notify the Lord Proprietary's Appointment of me, to succeed Colonel Sharpe, as Governor of this Province; to merit which Honour, and the Trust thus reposed in me, I shall ever consider it to be my indispensable Duty to promote, on all Occasions, the Prosperity of Maryland.

Gentlemen of the Lower House,

Convinced, as I am, that the real Interests of the Lord Proprietary, and the People of this Province, are inseperable, I meet this Assembly with the most agreeable Prospect.——From your Attachment to the Welfare of your Country, from your Knowledge of its Circumstances, and from your Moderation and Prudence, I derive the most persuasive and pleasing Expectation that this Session will be distinguished, by the Benefits which a dispassionate and amicable Intercourse cannot fail to produce, by the Propriety of your Proceedings, and by the Utility of those Laws which shall be enacted.

His Lordship has been pleased to assure you, in the Message I am now to have the Honour of delivering to you, that if you will prepare the Plan for the further Improvement of the Province, his Encouragement shall not be wanting.

Tho' I warmly wish, that a well founded Provision for a more liberal Institution of Youth may be established here, yet, I do not undertake, at this Time, to recommend particular Objects to your Attention: The Observations I have made, during the short Interval since my Arrival, not affording me sufficient Grounds; and, if that Interval had been much longer, your Experience would probably anticipate my Recommendations; but, give me leave to assure you, you may always rely upon my most cordial Concurrence in every Measure you may Propose, conducive to the Welfare and Happiness of the Province.

Gentlemen of both Houses,

I am sensible I shall be judged of by my Actions, and not by any Assurances I may now give you of my future Conduct; to that Test I most readily submit, and shall be truly happy when I leave you, to be able, like my Predecessor, to lay my Hand on my Heart, in Confidence of having acted solely on the Principles here laid down, and, of having merited, by so doing, the Thanks of those over whom I have the Honour to preside.

To his EXCELLENCY ROBERT EDEN, Esq; Governor and Commander in Chief in and over the Province of Maryland.

The humble ADDRESS of the UPPER HOUSE of ASSEMBLY.

May it please your Excellency,

HIS Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Upper House of Assembly, beg leave to congratulate your Excellency on your Appointment to the Government of this Province, and safe Arrival with your Family; and to render our best Thanks to you for your very obliging Speech at the Opening of this Session.

Whilst we indulge the most sanguine Hopes, that the Advancement of the true Interests of the People will mark the honourable Character of your Excellency's Administration, give us Leave to express our warmest Wishes, that the Residence of yourself and Lady among us, will be made agreeable, by all the Returns which are due to the most engaging Affability and Complacency.

The Justice we owe to a Character, really estimable, demands from us, some Tribute to the Merit of our late worthy Governor——Amidst the general Approbation of his just, equitable, and prudent Administration, we cannot withhold our Eulogy——In Consequence of his steady Adherence to the Duties of his Station, his firm Assertion of the Rights of the Lord Proprietary, and his Maintenance of the Privileges of the People, he deservedly gained their Applauses, whilst he faithfully answered his Lordship's Expectation, and justly entitled himself to his most distinguished Regard.

We entirely agree with your Excellency, that the real Interests of the Lord Proprietary and the People of this Province are inseperable; and, if any Evidence were wanting to confirm the Principle, the concurring Sentiments of his Lordship and the good People of this Province, in Favour of a Gentleman, who invariably made it the Plan of his Administration, would amply supply it.

From the short Time your Excellency has been among us, it cannot be expected that you can have framed such a comprehensive Knowledge of the Circumstances of the Country, as to be able to recommend an adequate Provision of Laws; but the Intimation you have given, of a more liberal Establishment for the Institution of Youth, gives us the most lively Impression of your Excellency's Regard to the Prosperity of the Province, and claims our warmest Acknowledgments. To this most interesting Object we shall pay all due Attention, as well as to every other useful Regulation, which may either occur to ourselves, or be proposed for our Concurrence.

Influenced by the strongest Motives of Duty, from the Consideration of your near Alliance to the Proprietor, and impressed with the deepest Sense of your Excellency's Attention to the Prosperity of Maryland, you may be assured, Sir, that we shall ever exert our most zealous Endeavours, to render your Administration agreeable to his Lordship, yourself, and the People of this Province.

November 20, 1769. CHARLES HAMMOND.

To which his EXCELLENCY was pleased to return the following ANSWER:

Gentlemen of the Upper House of Assembly,

YOUR affectionate Address is a favourable Presage to me of a permanent Happiness in my Government——If my Endeavours to merit a Continuance of your Affections prove successful, I shall look upon the honourable Trust, which by his Lordship's Favour I now hold, as the most fortunate Circumstance in a Life entirely devoted to the Service of this Province.

ROBERT EDEN.

To his EXCELLENCY ROBERT EDEN, Esq; Governor and Commander in Chief in and over the Province of Maryland.

The humble ADDRESS of the HOUSE of DELEGATES.

May it please Your Excellency,

WE, his Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Delegates of the Freemen of Maryland, in General Assembly convened, return your Excellency our sincere Thanks, for your kind and affectionate Speech, at the Opening of this Session. We cordially congratulate you upon your Appointment to succeed your worthy Predecessor, Colonel Sharpe, in the Government of this Province, and upon your safe Arrival with your Lady and Family, to take upon you the Administration. The Honour of this great and important Trust you cannot fail, Sir, of meriting, so long as you consider it your indispensable Duty to promote, on all Occasions, the Prosperity of Maryland; and, while we indulge ourselves with the pleasing Prospect of a mild and equitable Government, permit us to assure your Excellency, that it will ever give us Pleasure, when we can, in any Manner, contribute to make your Administration easy and agreeable to yourself, and honourable to the Lord Proprietary.

Your Desire of accommodating the public Business to our private Affairs, demands our sincere Acknowledgments; and, as the Exigencies of Government have made it necessary to call us together at this Time, we shall with Cheerfulness submit to the Inconveniences arising from a Meeting of Assembly at so late a Season.

Convinced as we are, with your Excellency, that the real Interests of the Lord Proprietary and the People of this Province are inseperable, we venture to hope, that our Conduct, in the Course of the Session, will so manifest our Attachment to the Welfare of our Country, that your Excellency will not be disappointed in the Expectation you are pleased to entertain, being determined to pursue the Business, with that Temper and Moderation, and to cultivate that amicable Intercourse, so essentially necessary to the Attainment of those Benefits which are the Objects of our Meeting.

It gives us great Satisfaction to be assured, in the Message with which his Lordship has honoured us and which your Excellency was pleased to deliver, of his Willingness to encourage any Plan for the Improvement, or Addition to the Happiness, of his Province, which, the Relation you bear to his Lordship, and the Sentiments of Friendship and Affection for, and Confidence in you, he is pleased to express, afford us the most agreeable Hope it will be as much in your Power, as we believe it is your Inclination, greatly to promote.

The warm Concern you are pleased, Sir, to express for the Welfare of the rising Generation, and your Assurance that we may rely upon your most cordial Concurrence in every Measure we may propose conducive to the Welfare and Happiness of the Province, have a just Claim to our most sincere Thanks——And, though we join you in wishing for a well founded Provision for the more liberal Institution of Youth, yet, we hope we shall stand excused in not entering upon a Consideration of that Matter at this Time, when the severe Season of the Year is so nearly approaching.

We receive your Excellency's Assurances as an Earnest of your future Conduct——We persuade ourselves that by that Test they will be justified; and we cannot but indulge ourselves with the warmest Expectations that you will always have the Happiness to receive, for having acted solely upon the Principles you have been pleased to lay down, the united Thanks and Applause of a grateful People.

November 21, 1769. ROBERT LLOYD, Speaker.

To which his EXCELLENCY was pleased to return the following ANSWER:

Gentlemen of the Lower House of Assembly,

I WANT Words to express my Thanks in the Form which your very obliging and affectionate Address so amply demands——Your generous Determination of transacting the Business which may come before you with the Moderation I took the Liberty of recommending in my Speech, at the Opening of the Session, will justly entitle you to the Esteem of your Sovereign, your Lord Proprietary, your Constituents, and your Governor.

ROBERT EDEN.

On Friday last the CLERGY of this Province, waited on his Excellency the Governor, with the following Petition:

TO HIS EXCELLENCY

ROBERT EDEN, Esquire,

Governor and Commander in Chief in and over the Province of Maryland.

WE, his Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Clergy of Maryland, in Communion of the Church of England, beg Leave, after the Example of our Brethren in the Provinces of New-York, New-Jersey, and Pennsylvania, to PETITION your Excellency for a Charter, to incorporate a Society for the Support and Relief of the Widows and Children of deceased Clergymen within this Province. Not only the Governors readily and cheerfully granted this reasonable Request to the Clergy of those Provinces, but the Proprietaries of Pennsylvania have countenanced the undertaking, with their hearty Approbation and Wishes for its Success.

Though the Clergy of Maryland, by the Provision made for them by the Piety and good Disposition of the People, confirmed by ancient Laws, cannot plead so great Distress as their neighbouring Brethren, yet, it has often happened, that the Families of many Clergymen, from the shortness of their Life, or smallness of their Parish, have been left in deplorable Circumstances. To remedy which, we have proposed to raise a Fund, for the Support and Maintenance of the Widows and Children of deceased Clergymen of the established Church, which only waits your Excellency's Approbation, to give the Foundation a legal Sanction, by Charter.

We take this Occasion to felicitate your Excellency, your Lady and Family, on your safe arrival in this Province. Your late Attendance on his Majesty's Person, which then gave you Opportunity to contemplate, as you now have to imitate, his Royal Virtues, as well as your Affinity to the Lord Proprietary, make your Excellency's Appointment to this Government particularly acceptable to us. As the Clergy of Maryland have shewn themselves, at all Times, most true and loyal to his Majesty, and well attached to his Lordship, they make no doubt but your Excellency will extend that Favour to them, which they have hitherto experienced from your Predecessors.

Annapolis Nov. 17, 1769.

To which his EXCELLENCY was pleased to return the following most gracious ANSWER.

Reverend Sirs,

BE assured I shall be very happy, if I can be of any Service to you, in promoting the Success of the Petition you have now delivered to me; and, from my Knowledge of the Lord Proprietary, his Sentiments and his Instructions to me, I have no doubt of procuring you his Concurrence thereto. Your Petition shall without loss of Time be transmitted to his Lordship, and his Answer when received shall be communicated to you immediately. In the mean Time give me Leave to assure you, you may rely upon my most earnest Inclination to encourage the deserving Ministers of the established Church, and to prevent any Increase of Sects dissenting therefrom; too many of whom, I have Reason to fear, have got Footing in this Province: Your Pious Endeavours can best stop their further Progress, in which I have the greatest Reason to expect you will not be wanting. Your Duty requires it, and my Recommendations are unnecessary to enforce it.

By the Committee of Grievances, Nov. 22, 1769.

THIS COMMITTEE will sit for hearing such Complaints of Grievances, as any of the good People of this Province think proper to make, at the Stadt-House, at One o'Clock, every Day during this Session. Signed per Order,
